- Renewals are permitted for items which do not have a high holds ratio (defined as number of holds exceeding number of available copies).
- A renewal is equal to the length of an item's prescribed loan period.
- All Shorewood materials have a three-day grace period.
- Patrons may borrow Shorewood-owned adult books and audiobooks for a six week period if requested at the time of check-out. For these items, renewals are equal to three weeks. New and Lucky Day materials are excluded from this practice.
- Items received through Inter-Library Services for interlibrary loan are due on the date indicated by the lending library.
